Stops and Services

Pope County bookmobile services and outreach programs:

All services are free to Pope County residents

Books by Mail

Qualifying patrons may receive our books by mail service which provides access to library material through the Free Matter for the Blind and Physically Handicap legislation.

This program will allow participants to borrow large print books and audio books from the library, via mail. This is a free service to those who qualify. Participants are required to fill out a library by mail application in order to receive service.
